PROFILE

Communications and youth engagement professional with three years positioning institutionally partnered cultural and climate organisations for public and funder audiences across Nigeria and the US. Currently Strategic Communications Lead at KAFART, a British Council and Kaduna State Government partnered festival, where I built the official trilingual website and lead multi-channel storytelling across three editions. Founded the inaugural Youth Engagement Committee at SubjectToClimate, a US climate education nonprofit, during a competitive global fellowship. Published in the Aké Review. Grounded in ethical, community-rooted storytelling through sustained work with Northern Nigerian craft communities.

EXPERIENCE

Kaduna Fashion and Arts Exhibition (KAFART) · Kaduna, Nigeria Jun 2023 – Present

Strategic Communications Lead (2026 to Present) · Programmes, Research and Communications Officer (2023 to 2026)

Annual multi-day cultural festival spotlighting African fashion, art, and heritage; partnered with the British Council and Kaduna State Government.

- Lead strategic communications for the festival, shaping public storytelling and institutional positioning across three editions and the 2025 Abuja Pop-Up.
- Designed, built, and maintain KAFART's official trilingual website in English, French, and Hausa, including an editions archive, exhibitor directory, and the KAFART 6 open call infrastructure.
- Manage KAFART's social media presence across Instagram, Facebook, and LinkedIn: content calendars, campaign assets, and performance review informing content strategy.
- Authored the official British Council post-event report for the Abuja Pop-Up and produced partner-facing documentation for government and international stakeholders.
- Wrote exhibition texts, event guides, and audience-facing narrative materials, including for the KAFART × Kaduna Museum AR installation, translating heritage research into accessible public content.
- Curated and edited content for The Revue, KAFART's in-house cultural publication, across print and digital formats.

SubjectToClimate (Climate Curve Constellations Fellowship) · Remote Jun – Dec 2025

Brand Communications and Engagement Fellow

US-based nonprofit producing K-12 climate education resources for educators and youth communities worldwide; Climate Curve is a global fellowship for emerging climate leaders.

- Produced social media copy, digital campaign assets, and visually accessible teaching materials for youth-focused climate education initiatives reaching educators globally.
- Founded and facilitated the organisation's inaugural Youth Engagement Committee, running sessions and breakout dialogue and producing follow-up documentation and participant communications.
- Conducted structured stakeholder surveys and synthesised qualitative data into reports informing donor engagement strategy.
- Designed an ROI measurement framework for conference participation that became the basis for ongoing funder-facing engagement reporting.

Northern Creatives Conference (NCC) · Kano, Nigeria Apr – Nov 2025

State Focal Person (Kaduna) | Partnerships and Communications

Annual creative industry conference connecting artists, designers, and institutions across Northern Nigeria.

- Managed communications across a 100-plus stakeholder pipeline spanning youth networks, creative institutions, and government agencies, overseeing the full outreach lifecycle from prospecting to secured engagement.
- Served as rapporteur, producing structured session summaries and post-event documentation for institutional reporting to state agencies and sponsors.
- Drafted institutional outreach letters and pre- and post-meeting documentation for engagements with NIPC, NTDA, and MBIT.

The Nexus Space / GreenCheck · Kaduna, Nigeria Jul – Sep 2025

Acting Hub Manager (SIWES) · Social Media and Fundraising Volunteer

The Nexus Space is a youth-focused digital skills and innovation hub; GreenCheck is an environmental impact organisation.

- Coordinated digital skills programme logistics and participant communications at The Nexus Space.
- Managed social media and built a prospective grant pipeline for GreenCheck.
